Dear _____,

I am reaching out to you today because I know you have been a wonderful supporter of agricultural youth events in the past and I believe this information will interest to you.

A few weeks ago I was turned away from our county's livestock show because my animal did not make weight. Beyond the disappointment of not showing I was unable to sell my animal.

I did not expect to be in this position, but thankfully, the Okeechobee Livestock Market is hosting a "Second Chance Sale," on Saturday April 1, 2023, at 1:00pm. Now I have a second chance to show and sell my animal. As the saying goes, when life gives you lemons you make lemonade!

I hope you will consider supporting me, and other youth who are in the same situation, by participating in this event.

There are numerous ways to support. You can bid in person or watch the sale online and call-in to bid. You can place an add-on amount to one or more animals, and/or you can make a donation online at: www.OkeechobeeLivestockMarket.com/SpecialSales .

Your support would be greatly appreciated. Thank you for your consideration!

Sincerely,
